Dear Families,

Some highlights from last week include:

- School Photos: the children looked beautiful and smiled nicely for their photos
- Our Space corner has been well used. Children have shown a lot of interest and love learning about planets and space.
- Our home corner is still being used and loved as a hair salon. The children have loved doing educators hair and massaging their backs! (We have a tough life really!)
- Introducing our new guinea pigs to our preschool. Astro and the twins seem to love it here. Thanks to families for donating food, it is appreciated.
- Introducing and exposing our pre-schooler's to using a correct pencil grip.

The P&C have approximately 30 tea-towels left for sale. If you are looking to purchase one, then please put your order in before stock runs out.
